Wedding Belles

a new comedy by Alan Bailey and Ronnie Claire Edwards

October 29-November 15, 2008

DALLAS – One Thirty Productions, in cooperation with the Bath House Cultural Center and the City of Dallas Office of Cultural Affairs, opens its second season with the premiere of Wedding Belles a new comedy by Alan Bailey and Ronnie Claire Edwards on October 29, 2008. Bailey is best known for his play Smoke on the Mountain and Edwards recently delighted Dallas audiences with her performance in The Incarceration of Little Egypt at Theatre Two.

Set in 1942, Wedding Belles tells the heart-warming story of a young girl who shows up on the bus in Eufala Springs, Texas, to meet her soldier fiancée. They plan to ride the bus together to Galveston and get married before he ships out. Their wedding plans and their lives are changed by four local ladies who take the couple in tow and plan an unforgettable wedding.

Featured in the cast are Leslie Patrick, Pam Myers-Morgan, Sandra Looney, Marty Van Kleeck, and Gene Raye Price. The production is directed by Larry Randolph. Wedding Belles marks the opening of the second season of One Thirty Productions, Dallas' one and only matinee theatre. Specializing in light comedies, the matinee series is particularly popular with theatre goers who enjoy attending the theatre during the day.

Performances are at 1:30 P.M. at the Bath House Cultural Center. Wedding Belles opens on October 29th and runs through November 15, 2008. For group rates, reservations and additional information call (214) 532-1709.
