One Thirty Productions Announces the Opening of Lively Comedy at the Bath House Cultural Center

DALLAS- One Thirty Productions, in cooperation with the City of Dallas Office of Cultural Affairs and the Bath House Cultural Center, announces the opening of Ron Clark's heart-warming comedy A Bench in the Sun on March 11, 2009. One Thirty Productions has quickly distinguished itself in the Dallas theatre scene. The company specializes in light comedies and is Dallas's only "matinee only" theatre with all performances held at 1:30 pm.

A Bench in the Sun is directed by veteran director Charles Ballinger and features Larry Randolph as the irascible Burt, Cliff Stephens, a new comer to One Thirty Productions, as the dapper Harold, and Gene Raye Price as Adrienne, the glamorous actress who comes between them on their bench and turns their lives upside down. The show is guaranteed to send you home with a smile on your face and assurance that the world is a pretty good place after all.

A Bench in the Sun runs from March 11- March 28, 2009, with performances at 1:30 pm on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Group rates are available. Individual ticket prices start at $12.00. For additional information and reservations, call 214- 532-1709.
