Jot That Down! Recent Artwork by Kathy Lovas

September 5-October 10, 2009

Opening Reception with the Artist: Saturday, September 5, 2009 (7-9 PM)
Free and open to the public

DALLAS – The Bath House Cultural Center presents Jot That Down!, an exhibition of mixed media art by sculptor/photographer Kathy Lovas. The exhibition runs from September 5 to October 10, 2009. An opening reception with the artist will be held on Saturday, September 5, 2009 from 7 to 9 PM. Both the exhibition and the reception are free and open to the public.

Kathy Lovas' work is a search for the site of intersection between matter and memory. Using a variety of media, she creates visual archives in which words, music, objects, and photographs function as artifacts, indices, and aides-memoire. The artist's visual archives both help her to remember and allow her to forget. The works in Jot That Down! are based on a variety of written source materials, including books, scripts, lists, song lyrics, and conversations. The series includes sculptural assemblages and wall works created from clay, fabric, furniture, and objects.

Kathy Lovas lives in Dallas, Texas, and has taught photography in the College of Visual Arts and Design at the University of North Texas in Denton since 1992. To learn more about the artist's work, please visit her website at <http://www.kathylovas.com>.

Please visit www.bathhousecultural.com for more information and to preview selected art pieces from the exhibition.
