Dallas– It is time again for art lovers to get a great opportunity to support local and regional artists (and acquire some wonderful art in the process) during the Bath House Cultural Center's Spring Art Mart, April 15-17, 2011. The Art Mart has always been the place to find a special piece of art for yourself, family, and friends. Featured in this event are paintings, sculpture, photography, pottery, ceramics, jewelry, cards and other unique creations.

The Bath House Spring Art Mart benefits the Bath House Cultural Center's year-round visual and performing arts programs. Purchases benefit everyone: The lucky owner will take home one-of-a-kind artwork, while local artists and arts lovers will be able to continue enjoying the arts at the neighborhood cultural center on White Rock Lake.

An Art Preview Reception is scheduled for Friday, April 15, from 7:00 – 9:00 pm, and will be open to the public. Art Mart visitors are invited to raise a glass of cheer to celebrate the kick off of the Art Mart weekend, have a chance to become a Friend of the Bath House, and take a first look at the artistic creations and auction items being showcased in the Art Mart.

In addition to the art sale, which continues during the weekend, Friends of the Bath House will host a silent auction. All participating artists have generously donated art for the auction. This year's auctioneer will be Artistic Eye; proceeds will go to the Bath House Cultural Center Advisory Council to support visual and performing arts at the Bath House.

The artists participating in the 2011 Spring Art Mart are: *Kim Argubright, Cindy Bagwell, Rita Barnard, Randy D. Bennett, Martha Boles, George Boyd, Mary Brinson, David Wm. Cale, Pamela Cleveland, Dan Coppersmith, Lynda Culbertson, Debbie Daise, Beverly Daniel, Dan and Lori Dudley, Oscar Duran, Barbara Erickson, Pastor Garcia, Linda Goodwin, Rebecca Guy, Janice Hamilton, Shelli Hoggarth, Carmen Kelley and Sylvia Mims, Cindy Kelley, Lucy Kirkman and Justin Allen, Audrey Legatowicz, Kath Long, T.
