THEATRE MUSIC DANCE ART EXHIBITIONS CULTURE OUTDOORS FAMILY

May your holiday season be filled with arts and culture! There's no better way to get into the spirit of the season than by participating in fun and unique cultural offerings. The options are limitless and the listings below are just a taste of what the Dallas cultural community has to offer. Whether you're looking for a relaxing morning at a museum, a creative afternoon spent with the kids, or a jazzy night out with your spouse, there something for everyone to enjoy this holiday season. The City of Dallas Office of Cultural Affairs wishes you a Happy Holiday and encourages everyone to make 2009 a Cultural Holiday to remember!

THEATER

According to one reviewer from the musical's premiere, "Another Night Before Christmas should be required viewing for people who have reached the stage of no longer believing in miracles or Santa! It's insightful while delightfully entertaining and gives us cause to examine our own conscience when it comes to allowing ourselves the indulgence in merriment that Christmas brings." Performances run November 27 through December 20 at Theatre Too, Theatre Three's downstairs venue. Tickets range from $20 - $30. 2800 Routh St., Dallas 75201. 214-871-3300; www.theatre3dallas.com.

The SantaLand Diaries, by noted author and NPR humorist David Sedaris, chronicles the true-life experiences of an out of work slacker taking a job as Crumpet the Elf at the SantaLand display in Macy's Manhattan. This priceless one-man show has become a national cult-classic. Rated "R" for adult language and mature themes. Performances run November 27 through December 20 at Contemporary Theatre of Dallas. Tickets are $15. 5601 Sears St., Dallas 75206. 214-828-0094; www.contemporarytheatreofdallas.com.

For the 28th consecutive year Pocket Sandwich Theatre presents Ebenezer Scrooge, a musical tale of love and redemption based on Charles Dickens' classic holiday story. The "Bah Humbug" begins November 28 and runs through December 23 at Pocket Sandwich Theatre. Tickets range from $10-$18. Don't forget, food and beverage service are available before all shows. 5400 E. Mockingbird #119, Dallas 75206. 214-821-1860; www.pocketsandwich.com.

Dallas Summer Musicals presents Christmas with the Rat Pack, Live from the Sands, a festive production that will transport audiences to the early 1960's, when Frank and his pals were filming the original version of the casino robbery caper Ocean's Eleven in Las Vegas. It is the coolest holiday party in town! Performances run December 1 through December 12 at The Majestic Theatre. Tickets are $15 - $65. 1925 Elm St., Dallas 75201. 1-800-745-3000; www.dallassummermusicals.org.

Dallas Theater Center's annual family holiday tradition A Christmas Carol runs from December 1 through December 27 at the Kalita Humphreys Theater and is the perfect holiday season treat for everyone. Join Bob Cratchit, Tiny Tim and miserly old Ebenezer Scrooge as he learns the meaning of forgiveness and the healing power of love. Ticket prices vary. 3636 Turtle Creek Blvd., Dallas 75219. 214-522-8499; www.dallastheatercenter.org.

Don't miss Sanders Family Christmas, the hit sequel to Smoke on the Mountain, presented by One Thirty Productions. It's Christmas Eve 1941, and the Sanders family returns to the Mount Pleasant Baptist Church to get the congregation into the holiday spirit before the boys are shipped off to the war. More than two dozen Christmas carols and hilarious yuletide stories will have you laughing, clapping and singing along with bluegrass Christmas favorites. The production runs December 2 through December 19 at the Bath House Cultural Center. Tickets are $10 - $14. 521 E. Lawther Dr., Dallas 75218. 214-670-8749; www.bathhousecultural.com.

Don't miss the one-of-a-kind Black Nativity by Langston Hughes presented by TeCo Theatrical Productions and featuring New Arts Six. This foot-stomping, toe-tapping, soul-stirring musical joyously recounts the historic event that happened over 2,000 years ago. Performances run December 10 through December 20 at the Bishop Arts Theater Center. Tickets are $15 in advance and $20 at the door. 214 South Tyler St., Dallas 75208. 214-948-0716; www.tecotheater.org.
